and highly recommended by Dr. Valentine Mott, of the city of New York. A medicine to prevent the attacks of disease, to keep the system in healthy action, and to eradicate as soon pa possible every disease as soon as it appears, has been the great study of medical men for many years without success. The subscriber, however, not expecting his Pills to cure all the ills which flesh is heir to, confidently recommends them as certain and efficacions in the following: Heart the, Jaundice. Dyspepsia, Cholie, billious, remittent, and intermitent Fevers, diseases of the Liver, and Spleen, Femple Obstructions, Rheumatism, Foul Stomach, Dizziness of the Hear, Loss of Appetite, Weakness, and trembling of the Limbs, Nausca, or sickness at the Stomach, Flushings of the Face, Summer Com-plaints, Measles, Scarlet Rush, and will be found in-valuable in complaints of the Digestive Organs, and particularly those arising from impurity of the blood. As a preventive against Fevers, no persons should go to a warm climate without a box of these Pills;

LOOK OUT .- Counterfeiters are abroad; look always for the name of COMSTOCK & Co. on the splendid wrappers, and never buy it without [Frum the Boston Chronicle, Jan. 107] If We see by an advertisement in another colmn, that Messrs Comstock & Co., the Agents for Oldridge's Balm of Columbia, have deputies to sell that article in Boston and elsewhere. We know a lady of this city, whose hair was so nearly gone, as to expose entirely her phrenological developments, which, considering that they betokened a most amiable disposition, was not, in reality, very unfortunate. Nevertheless she mourned the loss of looks that she had worn, and, after a year's fruitless resort to miscolled restoratives, purchased, some months ago, a bottle or two of Oldridga's Balm, and she has now ringlets in rich profusion, glossy and of raven blackringlets in rich projusion, glossy and or lawar orangemens. We are not puffing none of the commodity has been sent to us, and, indeed, we do not want any, for, though we were obliged to wear a sig a year ago, we have now, through its virtues, hair enough, and of a p-seable quality of our own.

The Balm of Columbia has been heitsted by a notorious counterfeiter Let it never be purchased or used, unless it have the signature of COM-STOCK & CO on a splendid wrapper. This is the only external test that will secure the public from deception.

Manufacturing enterprise and skill have been much extended in New Hampshire within the last few years. With the aid of artificial water power the United Brethren, at Canterbury and Enfield, have for many years furnished manufactured implements in great perfection. The invention of the circular saw, and of improved machinery, has brought into use materials that ments were formerly rejected as uscless, and has ena bled a hand to produce in a single day what was formerly the labor of months. I have marked his bearing in the responsible and difficult post of Chairman of the committee on Finance through the discussions of the General Appropriation Bill, and, while dissenting absolutely from many of his views, and rejoicing heartily to see him neferent on item after item where he sought to add to or extend the Appropriations of the House, I could not but admire the ingenuity and force of his brief, off hand expositions, the readiness and clearness of his replies to the multitude of inquiries, often preposterous, which were showered upon him from all sides, the manly common sense of his general views and observations, and the courtesy and tact with which he pressed forward the action of the Senate. Such a debate afforded little opportunity for the display of the higher qualities of Statesmanship, but even these were exhibited in the terse and vigorous observations in which great principles of Legislation and Government were brought to hear upon the several points presented. Aware that, from the peculiar position of parties, any items evincing liberality of disposition or a confident reliance on the discretion of the Administration, could not be expected to pass, he yet presented itsin after item, supporting each with an earnestness of purpose, cogency of argument, and apparent confidence of success, as though conviction must he the result, yet submitting to defeat with perfeet sudvity and good nature, and returning at once to the charge on a new item, elastic and confident as before Mr Evans's more labored efforts especially
